Summary

“Black Monday” is a collaborative bet and arena brawler. The players set bets on them self or their fellow players. They manipulate the outcome of their bet in an awesome arena battle. Even through losing the battle they can win the game and earn the most money to be the millionaire.

Features

- Innovative bet mechanics
- Play with or against your friends
- Great text based level creator
- Bombs

Team

“Black Monday” was developed by Christian Schmidhalter and Dominik Haas. They are developers at Mr. Whale’s Game Service, an uprising and award-winning game studio based in Zurich, Switzerland. The studio was founded in 2015 by 6 former game design students with specific skills in programming, graphics, animation & 3d.

Plans for the future

Future plans are to expand and polish the mechanics and add level content. To finish and publish the game we are looking for a partner with publishing and funding opportunities.
